

Blanton Elementary 2015 Information Sessions

Are you interested in having your child become bi-literate and bicultural (Spanish-English) while also receiving an excellent education in a wonderful public school community in the Austin Independent School District (AISD)? Then you may want to check out Blanton Elementary School - Home of the mighty Bobcats. Blanton is an AISD Dual Language Campus with a tuition supported prekindergarten program.

Blanton will hold an information session for prospective parents on January 12, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. Principal Alma Valdez and other school staff will provide information about the school, the Dual Language Program (DLP), and the tuition supported prekindergarten program. Additionally, there will be a tour of the school grounds, including two Dual Language classrooms. Refreshments will be served at the January 12th session.
